

Can't Miss Vegan Friendly Food Carts in Portland, OR

Compiled by Jess of Get Scored!

Portland's food carts are a pretty big deal that garners attention from all over. They allow Portlanders to indulge their late night French fry cravings, eat more saucy bowl-based meals than you can imagine, and compare kick-ass vegan nachos, exclusively from carts, on the East Side.

Plus, food carts give tourists something to do besides visit waterfalls, smell the roses and eat VooDoo doughnuts

Here are some of my favorite, and most-talked about vegan-friendly carts:
